

1100 McDuff Avenue / Post Office Box 425 Grandview, Texas 76050
Office: (817) 866-2699 Fax: (817) 866-2961

Instructions for getting your Antique Alley Temporary Permit (Non-Food):

- Fill out a Three Day Solicitor/Vendor Permit. (This form must be notarized.)
<http://www.cityofgrandview.org/DocumentCenter/Home/View/601>
- The City will need a completed Three Day Solicitor/Vendor Permit application and a $20 permit fee.
- For non-profit organizations: You will need to submit a completed Three Day Solicitor/Vendor Permit application and bring your 501(C) Exemption.
- You can send all this information to City Hall by fax to (817) 866-2961, or mail to: Grandview City Hall, P.O. Box 425, Grandview, TX 76050.
- For more information call City Hall at (817) 866-2699.

Instructions for getting your Antique Alley Temporary Food Permit:

- Go to Texas Department of State Health Services and apply for a Temporary Food Permit. (This application must be received by the State Department at least 30 days prior to the event.)
<http://www.dshs.texas.gov/foodestablishments/permitting.aspx#temp>
- Once you have your Food Permit you will need to fill out a Three Day Solicitor/Vendor Permit application. (This form must be notarized.)
<http://www.cityofgrandview.org/DocumentCenter/Home/View/601>
- The City will need a completed Three Day Solicitor/Vendor Permit application, the State Temporary Food Permit and a $20 permit fee.
- For non-profit organizations: You will need to submit a completed Three Day Solicitor/Vendor Permit application and bring your 501(C) Exemption.
- You can send all this information to City Hall by fax to (817) 866-2961, or mail to: Grandview City Hall, P.O. Box 425, Grandview, TX 76050.
- For more information call City Hall at (817) 866-2699.